Friends of AviAssist support the work of the AviAssist Foundation. We work hard to promote the highest possible standards in aviation safety in Africa. We work as volunteers.

Friends of AviAssist raises funds to support the work of the AviAssist Foundation.

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT COMBINED WITH PROFESSIONAL SUPPORT

The AviAssist Foundation recruit volunteer professional expert trainers. By making your time available as a volunteer, you enable AviAssist to support both your professional development and that of your African colleagues and help us raise funds. On each journey, professionals work on real life issues in our industry, while experiencing perhaps the most profound learning experience of their lives.

Friends of AviAssist is ready to give you a unique experience to work among professionals in a rising continent.

Join us on a PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT JOURNEY as a volunteer trainer or expert & develop your LEADERSHIP RESILIENCE and CULTURAL DEXTERITY for our global industry.

Are you an expert in an aviation operational safety subject? Join our growing group of volunteer experts.
